What you can expect from Osstem World Meeting

The Osstem World Meeting is Osstem's iconic global academic symposium, held annually in various locations around the world. Following the success of the 2023 Turkey Osstem World Meeting, we are excited to invite you to the next event, the 2024 Osstem World Meeting, which will take place in the heart of Osstem Implant's home, Seoul, South Korea! This 2-day conference features hands-on classes and a full-day lecture packed with fascinating topics*. All hands-on courses and lectures will be led by experts in the field of implant surgery. Each hands-on class has a maximum capacity of 28 people, and enrolment is on a first-come, first-served basis. Please secure your spot now if you find the class topic interesting.

15:00 Hotel Check-in
Intercontinental Seoul COEX

Day 2 Thursday, 25 April 2024 Guide Tour

09:00 Tour Starts

Gyeongbokgung Palace

Gyeongbokgung, also known as Gyeongbokgung Palace, was the main royal palace of the Joseon dynasty. Built in 1395, it is located in northern Seoul, South Korea. The largest of the Five Grand Palaces built by the Joseon dynasty, Gyeongbokgung served as the home of the royal family and the seat of government.

Bukchon Hanok Village

Bukchon Hanok Village is a residential neighborhood in Jongno District, Seoul, South Korea. It has many restored traditional Korean houses, called hanok. This has made it a popular tourist destination, which has caused some friction with the residents who live there.

Lunch at local restaurant

Samcheong-dong

Low-key Samcheong-dong draws visitors to Bukchon Hanok Village, a sprawling maze of centuries-old traditional houses filled with artisan workshops, tea rooms and small museums. Elsewhere, galleries like the National Museum of Modern and Contemporary Art and Kukje Gallery show avant-garde work. Local indie boutiques sell crafts and gifts, and dining options include quirky al fresco cafes and laid-back Korean eateries.

Seoul N Tower and Cable Car

17:00 Tour Finishes

18:00 Group Dinner (Korean Fine dining experience)
